BRIGHT-COLORED TOP COATS ARE THE RAGE

Boardwalk Girls' Apparel Invariably Topped With Brilliant Hues

ATLANTIC CITY, June 28.—The summer girl's boardwalk apparel is always characterized by a bright top coat of some description, no matter how warm the day may be—and the top coat is always the gayest part of the costume. Bright-colored Norfolk jackets, of green, rose and ochre tints are having quite a vogue, and are competing for favor with the jaunty smocks and silk sweaters. Knitted sweaters are still worn, and yellow is quite as popular this year as it was last. Perhaps the suffragists mean to keep it before the public until their cause is won.

Speaking of suffrage, Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, the noted leader of the suffrage movement, was among the week-end visitors. Members of the Round Table Club of the Union League motored down to the Seaview Country Club for over Sunday. In the party were Mr. and Mrs. John Dunlop, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Burt, Mr. and Mrs. Roland C. Evans, Mr. H. L. Young, Mr. M. W. Phillips, Mr. George W. Evans, Mr. W. B. Sheppard, Mr. Carrol Nichols, Mr. Otto T. Mallory, Mr. Charles J. Biddle and Mr. R. H. Youm.

Mrs. Ethel Knessler entertained informally at bridge Monday afternoon at her cottage on Tallahassee avenue. The players were Mrs. Clayton Hagy, Mrs. John McConaghy, Mrs. Clarence Landroth, Mrs. Willet Beaumont, Mrs. A. B. Mathews and Mrs. Ferdinand A. Loeb.

Mrs. W. M. McCormick has issued cards for a luncheon and bridge at the Atlantic City Country Club tomorrow.

The Seaview Country Club will give a dinner dance at the clubhouse on Monday evening, July 3.

A rose tea was given yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Warren Somers, 113 South Pennsylvania avenue. In the interests of Child Federation, organized for the purpose of giving aid to children whose parents cannot afford a physician. Resolving with Mrs. Somers were Mrs. George Bailey, Mrs. John Nesbitt, Mrs. David Fitzsimmons, Mrs. George Keates and Mrs. William A. Faunce.

Mrs. Ida C. Hawkins, who spent the summer at Buck Hill Falls, as has been her custom for many years, is here for the remainder of the season. Dr. and Mrs. E. E. Ashton will arrive on July 1 to spend the entire summer at Chelsea.

Mrs. George B. Evans motored down from Philadelphia to the Brighton, where she will make her summer home as usual. Accompanying Mrs. Evans is Mrs. W. B. Sheppard. Miss Mary Quigley, who has been spending June in Wernersville, will return to her cottage, Rhode Island and Atlantic avenues, on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wallace and family have opened their summer home on Dover avenue, Ventnor.

Tioga

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Isaacs, accompanied by their daughter, Miss Helene Isaacs, of 1736 West Erie avenue, will spend the summer at their cottage on St. Charles place, Atlantic City.

Roxborough

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Crowthers, of Wilmington, Del., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ward, of East Leverington avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cox and their family, of Lyceum avenue, are at their summer home in Ocean City, N. J., until autumn.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Luke, of Leverington avenue, have been spending the last few Sundays in Atlantic City. Their daughters, Miss Mary Luke and Miss Helen Luke, are the guests of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Mellowed, of Wissahickon, at the summer home of the latter in Atlantic City.
